

HEAD COACH - Chuck McBreen

Head coach Chuck McBreen brings 22 years of collegiate and high school experience to the Roadrunner Men's Basketball Program. He took over a 5-20 program and has led the Roadrunners to an overall record of 220-105 in twelve years at the helm. Ramapo has qualified for the post-season eight of the past nine years. They have also finished first in the NJAC three of the past five years. The Roadrunners are an outstanding 183-69 over the past nine seasons. They are the Winningest College program in the state of New Jersey Division I, II or III over that time. Ramapo has qualified for the NCAA Tournament three of the past four years. Making it to the "Elite 8" and the "Sweet 16". McBreen was named NJAC Coach of the Year in 2002/2003 and 2004/2005 seasons. Under Coach McBreen, Ramapo has set school records for wins in a season (26), consecutive wins (17), and posted four straight 20 win seasons. He also has won two ECAC Championships.

A native of North Bergen, NJ, Coach McBreen spent two years as an assistant coach at Division I Western Carolina University in North Carolina. Prior to his time at WCU, Coach McBreen served as the head boy's basketball coach at Union Hill High School for four years. A two-time Hudson County Coach of the Year in 1995 & 1997, Coach McBreen turned over a program that had only won five games in three seasons. After posting a 9-16 record in his first year, 1992, Coach McBreen led his team to three consecutive winning seasons with records of 17-9, 15-9, and 19-8, and took each of those teams to the state playoffs.
